2. The learned counsel for the petitioner/A1, pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, who has been in incarceration since 11.02.2026 and false implication in the case, seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that there are no eye witnesses to the occurrence and that the petitioner has been implicated in this case solely based on suspicion. He further submits that other than the confession statements recorded from the other accused, there is no other material against the petitioner. He also submits that major part of the investigation has been completed and some of the co-accused have already been enlarged on bail. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for the grant of bail, is that the petitioner/A1, who is the father-in-law of the victim/deceased, along with other accused, had allegedly committed the murder of the victim/deceased by engaging henchmen, due to a matrimonial cruelty inflicted by the victim to his daughter/A3. He further submits that the investigation in this case has been completed and the respondent are awaiting the lab report.
