2. The learned counsel for the petitioner, pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, who has been in incarceration since 27.02.2026 and false implication in the case, seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is the husband of the defacto complainant and due to matrimonial dispute, a false complaint was given and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of bail, is that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant using an iron rod, due to which, the defacto complainant sustained head injuries and later discharged from the hospital. He further submits that the petitioner has one previous case.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner and taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner
