2. The learned counsel for the petitioner, pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, who has been in incarceration since 06.03.2026 and false implication in the case, seeks indulgence of this Court. He also submits that though the petitioner is in no way connected with the alleged offence(s), the present case has been foisted only for a statistical purpose. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing for grant of bail, is that the petitioner, along with other accused, waylaid the defacto complainant and robbed a sum of Rs.2200/- at knife point. He further submits that the petitioner has one previous case of murder and that he was enlarged on bail in the said case.

4. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record and considering the period of incarceration
