2. The learned counsel for the petitioner, pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner and false implication in the case, seeks indulgence of this Court. He further submitted that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that he is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case and he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

3. The case of the prosecution as put forth by the learned Government Advocate(Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, is that the occurrence took place on 25.03.2026. Both the petitioner and the de facto complainant belong to the same locality. Due to previous enmity, the petitioner allegedly attacked de facto complainant with knife and stones, resulting in abdominal injuries. The de facto complainant was admitted to hospital as an in-patient and subsequently discharged on 05.04.2026.

4. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
