ORDER

CRL O.P. No.11175 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that these petitioners along with the other accused have murdered the de-facto complainant's husband. He fairly submits that the co-accused has already been granted bail by this Court. He further submits that investigation has been completed. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the fact that the investigation has been completed and the case is now posted for trial and further, it is to be noted that the co-accused has already been granted by this Court and also considering the incarceration period of these petitioners from 16.06.2025 and 17.06.2025 respectively, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction

[e] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].
