Crl.O.P.No.11644 of 2026

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 21.02.2026 at about 8.00 P.M., the petitioner along with other accused, stopped the defacto complainant's vehicle, and abused him using obscene words. When advised not to associate with the complainant's son Sanjay due to their habitual consumption of alcohol, they became enraged. It is alleged that one Murali, armed with a knife, threatened the complainant by uttering words to the effect of "from now, die" and inflicted injuries on the complainants left hand and head. Thereafter, accused Lokesh also attacked the complainant with a knife, causing injury to his right hand. The complainant attempted to flee but collapsed a short distance away due to the severity of the injuries. Subsequently, he was admitted to Chengalpattu Government Hospital for treatment. Hence, this case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, he has been arrested and he is languishing in jail from 25.03.2026. Therefore, he prays for grant of bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) appearing for the respondent police, on instructions, submits that the petitioner/accused along with other accused attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries.

However, the injured person has been discharged from the hospital. However, the learned counsel has opposed for grant of bail.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his defense and contention, is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- to any association. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

6.Considering the facts and circumstances and considering the period of incarceration already undergone and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has come forward to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- to the credit of "Tamil Nadu Advocate Clerk Association, Chennai", this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner shall pay a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) as costs to the Tamil Nadu Advocate Clerk Association, Chennai and on such payment, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail, on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum each, to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Chengalpattu, and on further conditions:

c)the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness;

e)On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

f) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of BNS.
