3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the respondent police have registered a false case against the petitioner. The petitioner is under judicial custody since 27.03.2026. He further submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. though the petitioner has got five previous cases pending against him, considering the fact that same are not of similar nature and also considering the fact that the quantity seized does not fall under the category of commercial quantity and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
