2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in possession of 1.80 kg of ganja. Thereafter, on the confession of him, 20 kgs of ganja was recovered. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is the sole accused. He further submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case and that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the Petitioner.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the Respondent Police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the recovery comes under commercial quantity and that the entire recovery is from this petitioner. He further submitted that investigation is pending and the petitioner has 45 previous cases pending against him and some of the cases comes under NDPS Act. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions and perused the materials available on record.
