3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case and that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. It is the further submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is not the owner of the vehicle in question. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case; taking note of the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side); considering the involvement of commercial quantity involved and from the submissions made by the learned Government Counsel (Criminal Side), to overcome the rigour under Section 37 of NDPS Act, this Court could not find any material.
