in Crime No.68 of 2026

..Respondent(s)

PRAYER: Criminal Original Petition filed under Section 482 of BNSS, 2023, praying to enlarge the petitioner on bail in the event of his arrest in Cr. No. 68 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police and thus render justice.

For Petitioner(s): M/s.R. Raji

For Respondent(s): Mr.A.Gopinath
Government Advocate (Crl. Side)

ORDER

The petitioner / Accused, who apprehends arrest in the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 303(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) 2023, read with Section 21(1) of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in connection with Cr. No. 68 of 2026, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that while the respondent police were out on patrol duty, they intercepted a vehicle bearing Registration Number TN 31 AD 8035. Upon checking the vehicle, they found that it was transporting 3 units of pebbles without any valid permit, license, or clearance documents from the government. In this regard, the respondent police registered the First Information Report against the petitioner. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this crime without any basis. He submits that the petitioner was merely the driver of the vehicle, possesses a permanent residence, and has no personal interest in the cargo. He further points out that the vehicle along with the 3 units of pebbles has already been secured by the respondent police. It is also submitted that this is the first anticipatory bail application before this Court and there are no previous cases or criminal antecedents pending against the petitioner. Since the petitioner is fully prepared to cooperate with the investigation and offer solvent sureties, the learned counsel prays for the grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police opposed the grant of anticipatory bail, highlighting the unauthorized transit of 3 units of pebbles. He, however, confirms that the vehicle and the cargo have already been secured, and verifies from the case records that there are no previous cases or adverse antecedents recorded against this petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, the nature of the offences, and taking note of the fact that the vehicle and the 3 units of pebbles have already been secured, and considering that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to regular reporting conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No. II, Virudhachalam, Cuddalore District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police every Saturday at 10.00 a.m. for a period of four weeks, and thereafter as and when required for investigation.

[b] the petitioner shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

[c] the petitioner shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560];

[f] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 BNSS, 2023.
