2. The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner along with the other accused, transported 3 units of pebbles without valid permit.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is the driver of the vehicle and that he has been falsely implicated in the case. Hence, prayed for anticipatory bail.

4. The Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and would submit that there are 3 previous cases pending as against the petitioner and strongly opposed to grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and the quantity involved, and considering the fact that though the petitioner has 3 previous cases, they are not similar in nature, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Vriddhachalam Taluk, Cuddalore District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police, on every Saturday at 10.30 a.m., for a period of four weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioner shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala
