The petitioner, who apprehends arrest in the hands of the respondent Police, for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 126(6), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 109(1), 351(3) of the BNS Act, r/w Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002 in Crime No.60 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that in continuation of the dispute regarding parking the vehicle, the petitioner along with other accused abused the defacto complainant, her husband and son with filthy language, attacked them with wooden log and stone and thereby caused injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and that he was pacifying the issue and he has not committed any of the offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has no previous criminal antecedents and the injured was discharged from hospital and hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the case of the prosecution and on instructions, submitted that the dispute is between the neighbours regarding parking and apart from this case, the petitioner has got no previous case and the injured was discharged from hospital.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on either side, nature of offence that the dispute between the neighbours and the injured was discharged from hospital and there is no previous case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Additional Mahila
