No.76 of 2026 on the file of the respondent.

For Petitioners : Mr.W.Camyles Gandhi
For Respondent : Mr.A.Gopinath

ORDER

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest in the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 191, 296 (b), 115 (2), 118 (1), 351 (2) of BNS r/w. 4 of TNPHW Act (147, 294 (b), 323, 324 & 506 (ii) of IPC) in connection with Cr.No.76 of 2026, seek anticipatory bail.

2 The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the petitioners and other accused attacked the defacto complainant with wooden log causing injuries. Hence, the case was registered.

3 The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that it is a case in counter. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

The learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) appearing for the respondent reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that in total, there are five accused in this case, there is one previous case against the first petitioner and nine previous cases against the second petitioner and there is no previous case pending as against the fourth petitioner and the injured has been discharged from the Hospital.

5 Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6 Considering the nature of the offence and the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital and though there are some previous cases pending against the petitioners which are not similar in nature and in all, bail was granted to them, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.

7 Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate, Sendamangalam on condition that the petitioners shall execute
