2 The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, under the pretext of marriage, had physical relationship with the victim, who was employed in the sweet shop running by the defacto complainant and refused to marry her. Hence the case.

3 The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the respondent police have registered a false case against the petitioner and the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioners is in judicial custody from 18.03.2026. Hence he prayed that the petitioner may be released on bail.

4 The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner, under the pretext of marriage, had physical relationship with the victim and refused to marry her. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. Hence he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5 Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6 Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offence, material part of investigation might have been completed and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Poonamallee, and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police, daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which he is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he is suspected;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
