2 The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused robbed Rs.4,650/- and covering chain at knife point. Hence the case.

3 The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the respondent police have registered a false case against the petitioner and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 04.06.2026. He would further submit that the petitioner is the sole breadwinner of the family and the co-accused were released on bail. Hence he prayed that the petitioner may be released on bail.

4 The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner along with other accused, committed robbery at knife point. Further there are 5 previous cases pending against the petitioner. Hence he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5 Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6 Considering the rival submissions on either side, nature of offences and the fact that already co-accused were released on bail and
