ORDER

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 62 and 310 (4) of BNS Act, 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners discussed the topic involving decoity in the village. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that no property was stolen in the village. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that there are four previous cases pending as against the third petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

WEB COPY 5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submissions made by both side counsel, nature of offence, and the fact that there are some previous cases pending against the third petitioner which are not similar in nature and in which, bail was granted to him, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sendamangalam, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police, daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of 30 days and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation;

[b] the petitioners shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade them from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

[c] the petitioners shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.2023.
