Murukaram

... Petitioner

vs.

State rep by
The Inspector of Police,
Vedaranyam Police Station,
Nagapattinam District
(Crime No.7 of 2026)

... Respondent

PRAYER Criminal Original Petition filed under Section 482 of B.N.S.S., Act to enlarge the petitioner on bail in the event of his arrest by the respondent police in Crime No.7 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police.

For Petitioner: Mr.N.Palanivel

For Respondent: Mr.S. Balaji
Government Advocate (Crl. Side)

ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of B.N.S Act and 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957 in connection with Crime No.7 of 2026, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had illegally transported one unit of savudu sand by using Tractor without obtaining any valid permission. Hence, the case was registered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that he has been falsely implicated in this case based on the confession statement of the co-accused. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and would submit that no previous case pending as against the petitioner. Further, he would submit that earlier the anticipatory bail petition filed by the petitioner was dismissed by order dated 09.03.2026 in Crl.O.P.No.5945 of 2026 the present petition is the second anticipatory bail petition. Further, he would submit that the respondent police seized the sand and the vehicle. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by both side counsel, nature of offence, quantity involved and the fact that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Disrict Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Vedaranyam, on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police, every Saturday at 10.00 a.m., for a period of four weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation.

[b] the petitioner shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade them from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

[c] the petitioner shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned

Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.2023.
