The petitioner/A2, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 419, 420, 465, 468 and 471 IPC, in connection with Crime No.19 of 2026, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is alleged to have forged the signature of the de facto complainant and executed a power of attorney.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has no involvement in the alleged offence. Learned counsel further submitted that the co-accused have already been released on bail. Hence, prayed for anticipatory bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and would submit that the occurrence took place on 13.10.2025 and the petitioner is a member of a group of land grabbers and by criminal conspiracy, they have forged the signature of the de facto complainant. Hence, he strongly objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and nature of offences alleged as against the petitioner and also the fact that no previous case is pending against the petitioner and by this time investigation might have been completed in this case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ambattur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or the Police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further conditions that:
