ORDER

The petitioner/Accused who apprehends arrest in the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 118(1), 351(3) of BNS 2023 in connection with the Cr. No.76 of 2026, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are relatives and there was some wordy quarrel between them, due to which the petitioner abused and assaulted the defacto complainant. As a result of which the petitioner sustained injuries. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that there is no previous case as against the petitioner. He further submitted that the injured discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the nature of offences, the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.
