2 The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused intercepted the defacto complainant at a secluded place and robbed Rs.28.00 lakhs at knife point. Hence the case.

3 The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the respondent police have registered a false case against the petitioner under Sections 309(4) of B.N.S. and the petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 12.03.2026. He would further submit that the major amount has already been recovered and the co-accused were granted bail. Hence he prayed that the petitioner may be released on bail.

4 The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner along with other accused, knowing the fact that the defacto complainant was carrying a huge amount of Rs.28.00 lakhs followed him and intercepted in a secluded place and at knife point, robbed the amount. Hence he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending as against the petitioner herein.

5 Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6 Considering the rival submissions on either side, nature of offences and the fact that already the major amount of Rs.25.00 lakhs has been recovered and no previous case is pending against the petitioner, taking into consideration of the period of custody undergone by the petitioner, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate II, Tambaram, and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which he is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he is suspected;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or

[e] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
