2. The petitioner apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent-police for the offences punishable under Section 296(b), 118(2), 74, 351(3) of BNS, 2023 and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment or Woman (Amendment) Act, 2002, on the file of the respondent-police.

3. The case of the prosecution is that, on 24.02.2026, the defacto complainant lodged a complaint alleging that, due to previous enmity between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and her husband, the petitioner picked up a quarrel with them, abused them in filthy language, and assaulted the defacto complainant with a cement stone, as a result of which she sustained injuries and was admitted to the hospital. Hence, the case.

4. Mr.S.Mahesh, the learned counsel for the petitioner, submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. He, however, submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions to be imposed by this Court. Accordingly, he prays to grant an order of pre-arrest bail to the petitioner.

He further submits that the injured was admitted to the hospital as an in-patient and was discharged from the hospital on 02.05.2026.

6. Heard on both sides. This Court has perused the materials available on record.

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offences; and that the petitioner has permanent residence and deep roots in society; there is less possibility of absconding; and further considering that the injured has been discharged from the hospital; and with a view to give one more opportunity to reform himself, this Court is inclined to grant pre-arrest bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, pre-arrest bail is granted to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

(i) The petitioner shall be released on pre-arrest bail in the event of his arrest or in the event of his surrender before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No.II, Alandur within a period of 15 days from the date on which the
