2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that this petitioner has been convicted for the offences under Sections 7 and 13(2) read with 13(1)(d) of Prevention of Corruption Act 1988 by the learned Special Judge, Special Court for Prevention of Corruption Act cases, Coimbatore and sentenced to undergo 1 year of rigorous imprisonment and to pay a fine of Rs.5,000/- in default to undergo 3 months of simple imprisonment for the offence under Section 7 of Prevention of Corruption Act and sentenced to undergo 1 year of rigorous imprisonment and to pay a fine of Rs.5,000/- in default to undergo 3 months of simple imprisonment for the offence under Section 13(2) r/w 13(1)(d) of Prevention of Corruption Act. The petitioner was on bail during the trial proceedings and the trial Court also suspended the sentence till 28.05.2026. The trial Court failed to consider the material points and there are no any materials available to prove the charges levelled against the petitioner. However, the trial Court convicted the petitioner and sentenced imprisonment and hence prayed to suspend the sentence pending disposal of the main criminal appeal.

3. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) appearing for the respondent would contend that based on the evidences only, the trial Court has convicted the accused and there are materials available to convict the accused and the prosecution has proved the charges beyond reasonable doubts and hence objected to suspend the sentence imposed by the trial Court.
