2. The petitioner apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent-police for the offences punishable under Sections 326(a) and 303(2) of BNS Act, 2023, read with Section 21(1) of the Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.110 of 2026 on the file of the respondent-police.

3. The case of the prosecution is that, during a routine vehicle check on the Athiperappanur to Natrampalli Kalar Village Road, the respondent police intercepted a tractor, bearing Registration No.TN 28 BK 3411; upon inspection, the vehicle was found illegally transporting approximately 2 units of artificial sand without any valid permit, license or lawful documentation from government authorities. An enquiry revealed that the accused had unlawfully excavated the sand for sale and personal gain, resulting in the seizure of both the tractor and the sand at around 11.45.a.m. Hence, the case.

4. Mr.M.S.Swathishkumar, the learned counsel for the petitioner, submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the petitioner is the owner of the vehicle. He however submits that the petitioner is ready to abide any conditions to be imposed by this Court. Accordingly, he prays to grant an order of pre-arrest bail to the petitioner.

5. Per contra, Mr. V.Meganathan, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent-police, submits that the accused person was illegally transporting 2 units of artificial sand by using vehicle. He further submits that there is one previous cases against the petitioner. He further submits that the investigation of the case is still pending and therefore, at this stage, if the pre-arrest bail is granted to the petitioner, he will commit similar type of offence and cause loss to wealth of the nation. Accordingly, he prays to dismiss this Criminal Original Petition.

6. Heard on both sides. This Court has perused the records.

7. Considering the fact that the petitioner's vehicle along with allegedly transported artificial sand has already been seized by the respondent-police, this Court is of the view that the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary. Further, the petitioner has permanent residence and deep roots in the society. Hence, there is less possibility of absconding. Considering the same and also considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, the quantity of artificial sand allegedly transported by the accused person and with a view to give an opportunity to the petitioner to reform himself, this Court is inclined to grant pre-arrest bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, pre-arrest bail is granted to the petitioner subject to the following
