3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the respondent police have registered a false case against the petitioner. The petitioner is under judicial custody since 03.03.2026. He further submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that this case has been foisted against the petitioner for statistical purpose. Therefore he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

He further submits that the petitioner has four previous cases pending against him. He further submits that if the petitioner is released on bail, he may abscond and would commit similar kind of offences in future as well. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, nature of offences, though the petitioner has got four previous cases pending against him, considering the fact that same are not of similar nature and also considering the fact that the quantity seized does not fall under the category of commercial quantity and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
