2 The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused snatched the cell phone and bag of the defacto complainant and when the same was prevented by the defacto complainant, the accused assaulted him with knife causing injuries. Hence the case.

3 The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the respondent police have registered a false case against the petitioner and the petitioner is hailing from very respectable family. He would further submit that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 29.03.2026. Hence he prayed that the petitioner may be released on bail.

4 The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner has committed the offence of chain snatching and caused injuries to the defacto complainant with knife. He would further submit that there are 10 previous cases pending against the petitioner. Hence he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5 Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6 Considering the rival submissions on either side, nature of offences and the fact that even though nine previous cases are pending,

none of the cases are similar in nature, in all pending cases already bail was granted to the petitioner and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate No.IV, Vellore and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the Flower Bazaar Police Station, Chennai, daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which he is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he is suspected;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned

Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
