2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner waylaid the defacto complainant and robbed a sum of Rs.500/- at knife point and also made criminal intimidation against him. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is under judicial custody since 09.04.2026. He further submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has nineteen previous cases registered against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side, the nature of the offences charged against the petitioner, and the magnitude of amount involved in this case and also the fact that though the petitioner has previous cases, he has been enlarged on bail in those cases and considering the period of incarceration undergone by him, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
