3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the respondent police have registered a false case against the petitioner. The petitioner is under judicial custody since 19.03.2026. He further submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner along with the other accused were found in possession of and engaged in the sale of narcotic tablets. From A1, the respondent police seized Alprazolam Tablets IP 0.5 mg (Reaty)-1 strip containing 15 tablets weighing

2.65 grams, Alprazolam Tablets (Anxit 0.5 mg)-1 strip containing 15 tablets weighing 3.65 grams and one Vivo Cell phone. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of the offences charged against the accused and also the fact that the quantity seized does not fall under the category of commercial quantity and that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and the co-accused have already been released on bail and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
