ORDER

2023 in Crime. No. 843 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that petitioner along with another accused was involved in house breaking and stolen 36 sovereigns of gold and 500 grams of silver and a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- cash from the house of the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is under judicial custody since 02.12.2025. He further submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has 20 previous cases pending against him. He further submitted that gold and silver jewels have been recovered, however, cash of Rs.1,00,000/- is not recovered. The investigation has been completed. The petitioner is a history-sheeter. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rivals submissions made on both sides and the fact that the investigation has been completed and charge sheet has been filed, and also the fact that part of the property has been recovered and that petitioner is not a named accused in the FIR and that though petitioner has previous cases, already bail was granted to him, and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to
