2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant married a woman from a different locality, and they have a child from the said wedlock. When the defacto complainant and his wife visited the village to introduce the child to their parents, the petitioner and others, owing to previous enmity, allegedly attacked the deceased with a knife, due to which he succumbed to injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is under judicial custody since 24.02.2026. He submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that co-accused has been granted bail in Crl.O.P.No.11082 of 2026. Therefore he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature, there is no previous case as against the petitioner. However, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.
