ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest in the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals Act in connection with the case in Crime No.500 of 2018, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found to be in possession of half unit of river sand in a tractor bearing Registration No.TN 51 AA 6271.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the material objects have been seized; the petitioner has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and that the custodial interrogation is not required in this case and hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and further submitted that, apart from this case, the petitioner has no other previous case and the soil and vehicle were seized. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions, nature of offence and the nature and quantity of minerals involved in this case and no previous case reported, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.
