2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, along with other accused, committed house-breaking and theft of gold jewellery weighing 22.5 sovereigns and cash from the residential premises of the de facto complainant.

Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the respondent police have registered a false case against the petitioner. The petitioner is under judicial custody since 19.03.2026. He further submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has fifteen previous cases registered against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side, the nature of the offences alleged against the accused, and taking into consideration that the petitioner is not named in the First Information Report (FIR), that the stolen property has already been entirely recovered, that the petitioner has been enlarged on bail in all other previous cases, and considering the period of incarceration undergone by him, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
