2. The case of the prosecution is that, on 19.03.2026, while consuming alcohol, the petitioner demanded additional alcohol from the de facto complainant for consumption. Due to which, a wordy quarrel arose between them, as a result of which, the petitioner attacked the de facto complainant with hand and bottles, thereby causing grievous injuries. Hence, the case.

He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and that the petitioner has no previous case.

5. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and the nature of offence, and further taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate I, Vellore, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or the Police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further conditions that:
