2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has illegally transported 6 Units of Gravel Sand in a Tipper Lorry bearing registration No.TN 55 BE 1732. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case and that the custodial interrogation is not required in this case and hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and further submitted that, apart from this case, the petitioner has no other previous case and the gravel sand and vehicle were seized.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations and considering the nature and quantity of minerals involved in this case and vehicle was seized with minerals, the fact that the petitioner has no other previous cases, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
