2. The case of the prosecution is that on 18.07.2025, the petitioner trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and broke open the bureau and had stolen the jewels and cash of the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the respondent police have registered a false case against the petitioner. The petitioner is under judicial custody since 18.03.2026. Therefore, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that there are 6 previous cases pending as against the petitioner and that part of the stolen jewels and money have been recovered. However, he vehemently opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side, the nature of the offences alleged against the accused, that though there are 6 previous cases pending as against the petitioner, they are not of similar nature and in all those cases, the petitioner has been granted bail, that part of the stolen jewels and money have been recovered, and considering the period of judicial custody undergone by him, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
