ORDER

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest in the hands of the respondent Police, for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 303(2), 326(a) of BNS act r/w Section 21(1) of MMDR Act in Crime No.128 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 05.05.2026, during patrol, the respondent police found that the petitioners were illegally transporting two units of gravel sand in two tractors without valid permission.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would contend that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case; that sand and vehicles were seized by the respondent police; and that the custodial interrogation is not required in this case and hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Crl.OP.No.12940 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the case of the prosecution and on instructions, submitted that the soil and vehicles were seized and apart from this case, A1 has got no previous case and A2 has got two previous cases and hence, vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on either side, nature of offence and the quantity of minerals involved in this case and the fact that the respondent police seized the sand and vehicles and though A2 has got two previous cases, they are not similar kind of offences and bail was granted to him, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners on certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial
