3. The case of the prosecution is that, the defacto complainant and the petitioners are neighbours and there was a pathway dispute pending between them. 5. Per contra, Mr.A.Gopinath, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent-police, submits that, the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours and during a wordy quarrel, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant with hands. He however submits that the injury sustained by the defacto complainant was simple in nature and that there is no previous case against the petitioners.

6. Heard on both sides. This Court has perused the materials available on record.

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offences; and that the petitioners have permanent residence and deep roots in society; there is less possibility of absconding; and further considering that the injured person had sustained only simple injury; there is no previous case against the petitioners; and with a view to give one more opportunity to reform themselves, this Court is inclined to grant pre-arrest bail to the petitioners. or his work place;

(vii) The petitioners shall also not, directly or indirectly, cause any threat to the defacto complainant and witnesses and shall not tamper the evidence.
