ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under Section 115(2), 351 of BNS Act and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.71 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 05.02.2026, at about 20.00 hours, the defacto complainant, who is the wife of the petitioner/accused, lodged a complaint alleging that, due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner had subjected her to physical and mental harassment, abused and intimidated her, and caused disturbance to her family life. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence and was not involved in the alleged incident. He further submitted that a false complaint was lodged solely to harass the petitioner and to implicate them for statistical purposes, and that the FIR was registered purely for statistical targets. Hence, he prayed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that there was a matrimonial dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, due to which, petitioner abused the defacto complainant and also assaulted her. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the above submissions made on either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
