Act, 2023 in Crime No.144 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has committed sexual assault against the minor daughter of the de facto complainant and also assaulted the de facto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case and that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the Respondent Police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the occurrence took place on 31.03.2026 and the petitioner has been incarcerated since 31.03.2026. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the Petitioner.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case; taking note of the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and from the perusal of the 183 statement recorded under BNSS, though certain allegations are made against the petitioner, considering the long incarceration of the petitioner since 31.03.2026, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
