ORDER

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 316 (2), 318 (2), 351 of BNS, in Crime No.112 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner who is the sub-lessee of JCB Tractor had mortgaged the same without any authority. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court and he is ready to co-operate for investigation. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner received a vehicle from the defacto-complainant and failed to return same. Instead, the petitioner applied for a loan by using the said vehicle. He further submitted that the vehicle has now been returned to the custody of the defacto-complainant. However, he opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the subsequent development that the vehicle has been returned to the defacto-complainant, this Court is of the firm view that the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary at this juncture. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate

State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560]*;

(e) If the petitioner thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of BNS Act.
