COMMON ORDER

All these applications are connected and as such are disposed of by this common order.

2. These applications are filed for 4 different reliefs under Section 9 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 2016 [hereinafter referred to as 'the Act']. The conflict arises between the partners of a firm pending its dissolution.

3. When the matter came up for hearing, the grievance expressed by Mr.Ramaswamy Meyyappan, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the applicant is that even though interim orders have been granted in respect of two of the reliefs and the parties are progressed to resolve some of the disputes between them, still the access to the Go Daddy platform is not granted which is the subject matter in O.A.No.528 of 2026. If access is granted and all the information are made in common, the parties will make further progress even before the commencement of the arbitration and there is a likelihood of amicably resolving the issue, if not they will proceed further with the arbitration and settle the issue.

4. Ms.Revathi G.Mohan, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent would submit that it is true that the parties have progressed with reference to the other reliefs. As far as the Go Daddy platform also the respondent is willing to cooperate with the applicant and they will grant access on condition that they should not be unilaterally change of passwords or any unilateral transaction by the parties.

5. The said condition is agreeable by Mr.Ramaswamy Meyyappan, the learned counsel appearing for the applicant.

6. In view thereof, recording the fact that the parties have resolved the other issues and with reference to the Go Daddy platform also the respondent will grant access to the applicant and that the applicant will not unilaterally change the password or make any unilateral transactions, these applications stand allowed.
