ORDER

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) & 351(3) of BNS r/w Section 75 of Juvenile Justice Act and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.183 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner is the son of the paternal uncle of the defacto complainant and, upon coming to know about the relationship of the defacto complainant, a wordy quarrel broke out between them, which subsequently escalated into an assault. Hence, the present FIR has been registered against the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the alleged occurrence took place on 22.05.2026 and that the injured has got discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. I have given anxious consideration to the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also perused the records available.

6. Considering the nature of the allegations, the fact that the alleged occurrence took place on 22.05.2026, and that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is of the firm that at this length of time, no custodial interrogation of the petitioner is required. Hence, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.IV, Vellore, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only), with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions:

(d) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate actions against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on anticipatory bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji v.
