ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 303(2), 326(a) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) Act, 2023 and Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.212 of 2026, on the file of the respondent-Police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner illegally transported one unit of river sand by using a Tractor. The petitioner's Tractor was seized with river sand. Based on the complaint, a case has been registered as against the accused.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any such offence as alleged by the defacto complainant and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and, upon instructions, submitted that no previous cases have been registered against the petitioner.

However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent.

6. From the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) the petitioner does not have any previous cases. Though, this Court views the offence of theft of natural resources and its exploitation as serious offence, taking into consideration of the fact that he has no previous case, and upon the fond hope that he would mend himself in future and would not come under the adverse notice of the respondent, this Court is inclined to enlarge him on anticipatory bail, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Walajapet, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions:
