The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 316 and 318 of BNS 2023, in Crime No. Not Known of 2026 on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioners is that, due to a family dispute, the petitioners allegedly took away the jewels, original title deeds and family properties belonging to the joint family of the defacto complainant without giving proper share to him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to co-operate with the investigation. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police opposed the anticipatory bail and would contend that the petitioners and the de facto complainant are brothers and sisters.

Taking into consideration of the totality of the circumstances, the family relationship between the parties and the fact that the dispute pertains to family properties, and further considering that petitioners 1 to 4 are women, this Court is of the firm view that, at this length of time, further custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required. Hence, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioners on anticipatory bail, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruvotriyur, Chennai, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions:

(a) If the petitioners fails to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, this order shall
