4.The learned Govt. Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that in this case, during the relevant period, the defacto complainant's daughter was a minor aged about 17 years. she gave birth to a female baby on 15.12.2024. Now she attained majority and They are living as husband and wife happily along with their female child.

5.Considering the submissions and on perusal of the materials, it is seen that the victim/third respondent/defacto complainant's daughter were in love relationship and gave birth to a female baby. Now, they got married and living as husband and wife happily along with their female baby.

6.Today, the petitioner, the third respondent/defacto complainant and her daughter/victim along with female baby appeared before this Court, their identity are confirmed.

7.During interaction, the victim/defacto complainant's daughter informed that she attained majority, both the petitioner and the defacto complainant's daughter are living as husband and wife and they were blessed with a female baby on 15.12.2024. The 3rd respondent/defacto complainant further informed that she is not inclined to proceed with the case and filed a affidavit to that effect. The Apex Court in the case of “K.Dhandapani vs. State by the Inspector of Police” reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 1056”, considered the subsequent events and observed that the Court cannot shut its eyes to the ground reality and disturb the happy family life of the petitioner as well as the victim. In view of the same, this Court finds that continuation of the proceedings will serve no purpose and it is only an abuse of process of law.

8. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands allowed and as a sequel, the case in Special S.C.No.202 of 2024 pending on the file of the Sessions Judge, Fast Track Mahila Court, Tiruppur, Tiruppur District, is hereby quashed against the petitioner.

9. The affidavits and the Joint Compromise Memo filed by the petitioner and the third respondent/ defacto complainant for compromising the offences shall form part of the records.
