..Respondents

Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, praying for issuance of writ of certiorari calling for the records relating to the impugned order no. ZD331125471902I dated 27.11.2025 passed by the 1st Respondent under Section 73 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 read with the corresponding provision under the Tamil Nadu Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 for the year 2021-22, and quash the same.

For Petitioner: Mr.Srinivasan V

For Respondents: Ms.G.Dhana Madhri, Government Counsel (Tax)
for R1, R2 and R4

ORDER

An order dated 27.11.2025 is assailed in this writ petition on the ground of alleged breach of principles of natural justice.

2. Ms.G.Dhana Madhri, learned Government Counsel (Tax), accepts notice for respondents 1, 2 and 4.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the impugned order was issued without providing a reasonable opportunity to the petitioner to contest the tax demand on merits. He also points out that the entire tax dues were recovered from the petitioner pursuant to the impugned order.

4. Subject to verifying and confirming that the entire tax dues were indeed recovered, the impugned order is set aside so as to provide an opportunity to the petitioner to contest the tax demand on merits. Consequently, the matter is remanded for re-consideration. After providing a reasonable opportunity to the petitioner, a fresh order shall be issued within three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. In view of the impugned order being set aside, the attachment of the bank account of the petitioner shall stand raised.

5. The writ petition is disposed of on the above terms. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed. There shall be no order as to costs.
