ORDER

The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 281, 132, 125(a) and 351(3) of BNS, in Crime No.571 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, while the de facto complainant, a Traffic Police Constable, was regulating traffic on 23.05.2026, the accused persons, who were the driver and cleaner of a private bus, violated traffic regulations, abused the de facto complainant in filthy language, attempted to run the bus over him, and subsequently threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Crl.O.P.No.14796 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police opposed the anticipatory bail and submitted that the FIR came to be registered on 23.05.2026 on the allegation that the petitioners had driven the bus in a rash and negligent manner and attempted to obstruct the discharge of official duties by the de facto complainant. Hence, the respondent police have rightly initiated action against them.

5. Taking into consideration of the totality of the circumstances and the fact that the occurrence took place on 23.05.2026, this Court is of the firm view that, at this length of time, further custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required. Hence, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioners on anticipatory bail, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Metropolitan Magistrate No.V, Egmore, Chennai, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further
