3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false and arise out of a civil dispute pending between the parties. It is further submitted that the offences alleged are not serious in nature and custodial interrogation is not required. The learned counsel would also submit that the petitioner is aged about 54 years and is suffering from heart ailment and has recently undergone angiogram and cardiac surgery. Therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital. It is further submitted that the dispute appears to be between neighbouring parties and there is also a civil dispute pending between them. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. I have given anxious consideration to the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side.

6. This Court is of the view that taking into consideration the totality of the circumstances, the fact that the injured has already been discharged, the civil dispute pending between the parties and the medical condition of the petitioner, this Court is of the view that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ambattur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only), with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions:
