3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner has been in custody since 22.05.2026 and is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He further submitted that the victims belong to socially and economically weaker sections and that the petitioner had only provided them with employment. According to him, the same has been misconstrued, resulting in the registration of the present case. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent, while opposing the grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and, on instructions, submitted that the petitioner has no bad antecedents and that a major portion of the investigation has already been completed.

5. Though the allegation levelled against the petitioner is serious in nature, considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, the fact that the petitioner has no bad antecedents, and also the fact that a major portion of the investigation has already been completed, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail, subject to certain conditions.
