2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, broke the house door lock, damaged the property and occupied it, and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that it is a case of civil dispute between the petitioners and the de facto complainant. He further submitted that A1 has already been released on bail. He further submitted that they are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and ready to co-operate with the investigation. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and, upon instructions, submitted that no one has injured in the occurrence. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, taking note of the submissions made by the learned counsel on both sides, considering the fact that A1 has already been released on bail, and the entire issue is in respect of immovable property, this Court is of the view that custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required at this stage. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
