2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner waylaid the defacto complainant, robbed a sum of Rs.350/- from him at knife point and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

He would further submit that the petitioner has been under incarceration since 25.05.2026 and is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for the grant of bail to the petitioner.

Side) appearing for the respondent, while opposing the grant of bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and, on instructions, submitted that the petitioner has got one previous case of similar nature. However, he fairly submitted that the stolen money has been recovered from the petitioner and that the investigation has already been completed.

5. Though the petitioner has one previous case of similar nature, considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, the fact that the stolen money has been recovered, and also the fact that the investigation has
